

Press Release
May 11, 2010

Contact: Carol Foley Bolt, 717.299.9496
Carol@PaArtsExperience.com

Pennsylvania Arts Experience
presents
Art on the Susquehanna Tour
September 10, 11 and 12, 2010

Kayak to the Native American Petroglyphs on the river, go behind the scenes to meet renowned local artists in their studios, relax and dine along the shores of the spectacular Susquehanna River, and spend 2 nights in an historic Rivertownes B&B.

Susquehanna River petroglyph

Lower Susquehanna River

Susquehanna Art Collection, Zimmerman Center

Once the gateway to the western frontier, this important river region is rich in historical, cultural, and artistic heritage. The glorious Susquehanna River has been pivotal in the development of our country and has served as a source of inspiration and adventure for centuries. Experience this rich legacy first hand - from the earliest Susquehanna artwork created by Native Americans to the works of renowned contemporary artists inspired by this magnificent river.

This tour offers:

- Kayak on the Susquehanna River to the Native American Petroglyphs with an expert guide and boxed lunch. This may take up to 5 hours on the River.
- Private curator's tour of the "Visions of the Susquehanna" exhibit on permanent display at the Historic Zimmerman House at Long Level, York, PA. plus a copy of the exhibit catalog
- 2 nights accommodations in The Railroad House, an historic B&B in Marietta, PA
- Dinners at John Wright Restaurant and "The Rookery" at Shank's Mare
- Private visits to the studios of Rivertownes artists

Cost: $595 per person, $995 per couple (double occupancy). Limited to 14 people on a first come, first serve basis. No pets. No wheelchair accessibility. Ages 21 and older.

*For more information and details on itinerary, please contact carol@PaArtsExperience.com